- As of mid-July about 60 American prisoners of war were being held in the former villa of CH'EN Chi-t'ang at Plum Blossom Village in Canton. They were given two meals daily of the same food Chinese Communist soldiers receive and were being given daily political and ideological training. Their guards were drawn from the garrison regiment of 15 Army Group Command Headquarters.
- The Chinese Communist 4 Field Army under the command of LIN Piao has selected a group of United Nations prisoners of war who can speak Mandarin or Cantonese and sent them to Canton.<sup>2</sup> About 128 such prisoners have arrived in Canton, including 13 Americans, 8 British, and 103 South Koreans. More than 40 were in the first group of arrivals, and the remainder came later in another group. The American and British prisoners are confined in the former USIS office in Shameen, Canton. They are restricted to the building, but are receiving of Chinese-speaking United Nations' prisoners of war for street demonstrations in Canton. The field comments that it is unlikely that United Nations' prisoners could be used for propaganda purposes without reports of such activity appearing in the Chinese press. An officer of the Chinese Communist 15 Army Group, 4 Field Army, stationed at Shihch'i, reported there were no UN prisoners in Canton as of mid-July. However,
